

Anthony R. Febbraro, CIAQP
Facility Environmental Partners

PANELIST

Indoor environmental quality consulting and inspection services for commercial and federal facilities. A chemist by training, he was national laboratory director for 12 years. He has over 25 years experience in IAQ and Quality Control including government and industry. He is president and founder of Facility Environmental Partners that he started in 2003. Tony gives training seminars and presentations to clients and national organizations. He holds and has held leadership roles in national and local associations related to facilities engineering and environmental protection.

Specialties: IEQ Proactive Inspections, Focused Investigations, Fire Restoration monitoring and hygiene validation methodologies.